WINKING OF U. S. SHIP BY GERMAN MEANS

Washington's Note to Berlin Practically
Such a Notice.

Note to Britain on the Use of the American Flag.

Washington, Feb. 11.—The text of the note dispatched by the United States to the Governments of Great Britain and Germany, was made public here today, and proved to be most vigorous and categorical. The note is a neutral one, and is addressed to the Governments of Great Britain and Germany.

The communication to Germany is particularly strong, and is generally anticipated. The German Government has been informed that the United States is not prepared to tolerate any violation of its neutrality, and that it will take such steps as may be necessary to maintain its neutrality.

The United States declares that it will hold the German Government responsible for any act of violence resulting in the destruction of American life, property or the loss of American ships. The United States also declares that it will hold the German Government responsible for any act of violence resulting in the destruction of American life, property or the loss of American ships.

DEMANDS ASSURANCE. Therefore, the United States asks the German Government to assure that Americans and their property will not be molested upon the sea by German naval forces, and that the German Government will take such steps as may be necessary to maintain its neutrality.

THE GERMAN NOTE. Here is the note to Germany: The Government of the United States, having had its attention directed to the proclamation of the German Admiralty, that the waters around the British Isles and the English Channel are to be treated as a zone of war, and that the whole of the English Channel is to be treated as a zone of war, and that the whole of the English Channel is to be treated as a zone of war.

defined in the German declaration, since such practice would greatly increase the use of a frontier power navigating those waters, and would even tend to impose upon the Government of Great Britain a measure of responsibility for the loss of American ships and the lives of American sailors. The Government of the United States is deeply concerned with the safety of American vessels and lives in the war zone declared by the German Admiralty.

SIX BATTLES NOW RAGING EAST ZONE. And of These Five Are Swinging Toward Victory for the Allies. The German declaration, since such practice would greatly increase the use of a frontier power navigating those waters, and would even tend to impose upon the Government of Great Britain a measure of responsibility for the loss of American ships and the lives of American sailors.

IN CZERNOWITZ. On the Koenigsberg route it is announced that despite the enormous forces of men transferred to the Warsaw front by Marshal Von Hindenburg, serious fighting has been going on since the evacuation of Isonzo by the Italians. The Germans are transferring men and guns to their strategic railways, and have assumed the offensive on the East Prussian border and on the right bank of the lower Vistula, where an advance has been made by a movement along the coast.

It is impossible to say yet whether the next big battle will be in this district or in East Prussia, as Grand Duke Nicholas, with whom the Russian high command has been in communication, has not yet decided his intention. He may either strike between Tilsit and Königsberg, or threaten to cut von Hindenburg's communication with the Russian front.

There is no doubt that the fighting in the Carpathians is continuing now with all the bitterness that has marked it for the last four days. Beginning with the Dnieper and extending with the sweep of the Carpathians, there is a series of conflicts at Polonoie-Roman, Mount Rukh, the valley of the Lysa, in the valley of Labore and Bukovina. There is a possibility that the German and Austrian forces have won whatever advantage they may be to them in the Carpathians. The Russians are talking back before this series of events.

CZERNOWITZ, the capital of Bukovina, is still occupied by Russian troops, according to latest reports, although it is claimed in Berlin that the Russian civil government has departed from the city. The Bukharin correspondent of the Morning Post telegraphs that all Austrian reports to the contrary, the Russians are in possession of Czernowitza and its zone extending some 15 miles to the south of the city.

It is officially announced in a despatch from Berlin that the German newspaper has left Berlin for the eastern war front. Private advice is to the effect that the paper is to be ready to start a couple of days ago for a conference with his generals as a result of the enormous sacrifices in life which had been made on the Warsaw front.

THE FOLLOWING RUSSIAN OFFICIAL STATEMENT WAS RECEIVED TO-DAY: It has been definitely established that the Germans are concentrating very great forces in East Prussia. These forces are being deployed, not only in the direction of Angermünde and Lyck, but also in the direction of the Russian front. The presence is reported of units of the German army in the direction of the Russian front.

On the right bank of the Vistula some small encounters have taken place in the direction of Minsk. The German forces have been only cannonaded. On the left bank of the Vistula, the German forces have been only cannonaded.

TO THE TEA TRADE OF CANADA

The year 1914 has passed, and during it we have sold the largest quantity of "SALADA" that we have in any year since it was first introduced to the public in 1899.

We have prepared a chart (printed below), which shows at a glance the vast business that has been built up on "QUALITY FOREMOST." In drawing your attention to this, we respectfully ask you to specially note the record of 1914. Notwithstanding great obstacles, our output last year was above the previous year's record—and this in spite of the rise in price, and the fact that part of the time we were without stock, and therefore unable to fill orders. The difficulties of the tea trade in 1914 were so unique that a brief survey of the facts may prove interesting.

When the year was little more than half spent war broke out in Europe. Our first misfortune was the seizure at Gibraltar of the German steamship "Schnefeld," which sailed from Colombo at the end of July with a large consignment of tea for us. Our next blow was the imposition of an embargo on tea in Great Britain, which prevented all tea from leaving that country. At that time we had in London 9,000 chests, bought at auction, paid for and ready to ship, and we could neither get our tea nor our money. A few days later word was received of the sinking of the steamships "Diplomat" and "City of Winchester" by the German cruiser "Emden." Those two steamers had nine million pounds of tea on board. As a result, further sailing from Ceylon and India were prohibited by the Admiralty.

Under these circumstances Canada would have been without tea for less than two months. Fortunately, later on, the embargo was removed, and we were able to get our stock in London, and after five weeks, the Emden having left the Bay of Bengal, the Admiralty permitted the resumption of sailings from India and Ceylon. Thus we were relieved of our most apparent difficulties.

However, in the trade, it is a well-known fact that Canadians have been served for years with a quality of tea at prices unequalled in the world, and the wholesale tea business in Canada has proved disastrous to many and unprofitable to all. During the past five years the market has been working steadily upwards, until just before the war we had to pay the highest prices in the world for tea. Having in addition, extra freight, war risks and still higher prices for our quality, we had only three options—lower our quality, go out of business or advance prices. We chose the latter. In spite of this, and our inability at times, to fill orders through shortness of stock, you will note by the chart that our increase in sales in 1914 over 1913 was 250,590 pounds, an increase in consumption of more than 1,000 pounds for every working day of the year.

Last year there was imported into the Dominion 37 million pounds of all kinds of tea. We sold in "SALADA" packets nearly one-quarter of this total, viz., 9,192,083 pounds.

We look forward to a still larger trade this year, and solicit your valued co-operation in our mutual interests. We readily acknowledge that other teas show you a greater profit than SALADA, but you must admit that no other tea gives anything like the satisfaction to your customers. We are giving a character of tea the consumer cannot get elsewhere than in "SALADA" packets, and the twenty-three years it has been on sale proves that consumers appreciate "SALADA" quality.

London, Feb. 11.—Two important facts were brought out by members of the Cabinet in to-day's session of the House of Commons. One is that Great Britain is considering drastic measures which aim to paralyze all German commerce. The second fact was made by Premier Asquith. The other is that the allied powers are little likelihood of peace overture.

THE MAN IN OVERALLS

Have you ordered your valentine?

I bet you that Dr. Roberts will put on a brave front when he goes to the front.

Now we might organize a company of fire fighters to cut the wire misanthropes.

Fire spearing on the bay is another popular amusement, with business as usual as a side issue.

In view of the patriotism and production of the war, it is plain that the cows are not so jingling the milk supply.

Then, I suppose Jim, the fire horse, is home to be calmed.

With my trained eye I can pick out almost every fellow in the crowd of the street who would turn traitor.

If I owned a factory or a foundry or a business, I might as well put up if it were shut down, on the slightest emergency.

Control the morning might let us know the cost and industry of the country are progressing.

The United Relief Association might get some relief if they would inaugurate a rummage sale.

Then, with a view to increase the cost of the war, we might see the dog tag $10 a year. I don't own a dog, needless to say.

I don't see myself how the City Reserve force could be responsible for the acts of the Board of Health.

Why not give your wife a little outfit in the evening now and again? The wife is in the house, and the night and by herself. Well, never, it's none of my business. But don't worry about it.

Home. That's thought for to-day. What we in our weakness call "adverse circumstances" are sometimes the best things that happen to us. A strong and well-knit soul.

A highly enjoyable evening was spent in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Sunday School last night, when the union Bible class gave a valentine party.

Mr. Lyman Lee, who after having been teacher of the class for seven years, recently retired, was prevailed upon to give an address on St. Valentine, and the class took the opportunity to give him a surprise in the form of a presentation.
